King Pat

Queen Jackie

Fall Festival '72 brought a great number of people together as they worked and campaigned for their candidates and participated in the activities during the week. On September 19 the skits were performed in the auditorium. Kathy Swanson portrayed a beautiful Snow White; Julie Conda was the beauty queen of a typical slumber party, and Jackie Muirhead was "The Real Queen." The "kings" were as follows: Scott Larson, a football hero; Jeff Hoffman, a successful political candidate; and Pat Whiting, the national hero, Popeye. On September 21, Dress Up Day, the king and queen were crowned by Hap Spooner and Terry Roholt, Master and Mistress of Ceremonies (pictured at left). After many anxious moments, Jackie Muirhead and Pat Whiting were crowned 1972 Fall Festival King and Queen! It was an exciting moment for everyone. September 25 was Lumberjack Day and Patsy Roholt and Dwayne Steele won five dollars each for being the most convincing woodsmen. September 27 was Sports Day, and Friday, September 29, was the day we'd all been waiting for with the game against Crookston that night. The week ended with an exciting victory over Crookston, 28-20 and a successful Homecoming Victory Dance to the sounds of Treavor Blite.

...and now I'm on the way awaynot really knowing whether I want to go or linger here.

What's out there I'm not quite as sure of as what has been here-these days of knowing and not knowing,
each year lost in longing for another.

Part of me is high enough to see beyond the "now" and tells me that there is something out there for me- a challenge is beckoning, a new life awaits.

But part of my being still lingers here on the ground living in the world it's known for awhile---

the smiles,
the frowns,
the troubles,
the joys,
the work,
the life,
the friends--

all carefully integrated into what we've all shared here-- a world of our own.
